BUSINESS SUPPORT INITIATIVE VENDOR APPLICATION DEADLINE: DECEMBER 21

This annual 7-day celebration of Kwanzaa occurs from December 26 to January 1st each year. Kwanzaa is focused on 7 principles (unity, self-determination, collective work, cooperative economics, purpose, creativity, faith) that can help us improve family and community relationships. This year's celebration will be held at St. Mark's Episcopal Fellowship Hall 600 Grace Street, Wilmington, NC.

Special attention is given to the Kwanzaa Market to help create diversity for entrepreneurs, small businesses to provide and maintain their services. There are many opportunities for you to introduce and market your merchandise, perform and participate in discussions on topics related to our community and needs.

The planning, development and success of this network is based on your participation and support. Registration, reservation and a minimum donation is required each night to be a vendor in our community Kwanzaa.

$20.00 – 1/2 table

$40.00 – 8' table

Participants must be setup by 5:45pm, for vending in the community ingathering to 6:45pm, break for Kwanzaa program 7pm -8:30pm, resume vending and refreshments to 9:30pm departure.
